

WATMOUGH BAY

Otters are often seen at this popular beach on south Lopez Island

ICEBERG POINT AND POINT COLVILLE (TOP LEFT)

Rugged headlands on South Lopez are popular for hiking and wildlife viewing

CATTLE POINT

A popular destination at the southernmost tip of San Juan Island, Cattle Point provides sweeping views and opportunities to hike along the ocean's edge

TURN POINT

The historic Turn Point Light Station on Stuart Island provides a great vantage point for observing orcas

PATOS ISLAND

A historic lighthouse and several campsites are nestled in 200 acres of forest on remote Patos Island

